TOKENSALE POLICY

STFCOINS TOKENS

Last updated: 10.03.2018

Please be informed that this token sale Agreement (hereinafter referred to as Agreement) is not an offer of securities, a kind of collective investment or some other financial tool. Furthermore, User shall not be provided with shares or any equivalent of rights, including, but not limited to, any right to claim a share in the future or intellectual property rights.

1. This Agreement establishes relevant rules and procedures for selling STFCoins tokens (hereinafter referred to as Token) by the Owner of the following WEBSITE – http://StopTheFakes.io (hereinafter referred to as WEBSITE) and their purchase by Users of this site. Agreement is an integral part of the General Terms and Conditions posted on Website.

2. StopTheFakes may at any time, at its sole discretion, unilaterally change this Agreement by posting an updated version at http://StopTheFakes.io.

3. Each User shall carefully read all the paragraphs of this Agreement without exception and shall fully comply with them.

4. Each User warrants that, before making purchases on the token WEBSITE, he read, examined and understood what is described in this Agreement and accepted each of its points unconditionally and irrevocably.

5. In case of disagreement by any User with this Agreement, its provisions or its separate part, this User must refrain from using Website, from purchasing tokens an from using them hereinafter.

6. StopTheFakes is a decentralized service for detecting counterfeits and violations of intellectual property rights. The service is based on a technological platform providing User with a possibility to submit a request for search for violations of his intellectual property and to obtain it should such information be found. This technological solution is not the only one on the StopTheFakes service.

7. Payment for the above-mentioned services is made in STFCoins tokens, which are created in compliance with all the ERC-20 specifications in Blockchain Ethereum. Token is created to facilitate communication among participants within the StopTheFakes service.

8. User understands, recognizes and agrees irrevocably and unconditionally that tokens are given without transfer of ownership, including but not limited to the title, intellectual property and so on. At the same time, tokens do not grant User rights to vote, to obtain a share, profit, passive income or other financial returns.

9. User is aware of merits, risks and any restrictions associated with tokens and Blockchain technologies, including but not limited to the risk of hacking and the vulnerability of the security system, the risk of uninsured losses, risks relating to the Ethereum protocol or some other cryptocurrency, the risk of losing access to tokens owing to the loss of the private key and risks associated with undefined actions. User assumes all risks associated with ownership and eventual loss of tokens.

10. When User presses the Buy Tokens button (or similar) on WEBSITE and/or purchases any quantity of tokens, the offer to sell tokens is considered to be formally accepted on the terms and conditions indicated by WEBSITE Owner. User shall pay the price corresponding to the quantity of the purchased tokens. User recognizes that pressing the button is a legally binding, unconditional and irrevocable acceptance of the proposal.

11. User understands, recognizes and agrees that tokens shall be available to him in the event that he accepts this Agreement completely and without exceptions. Tokens can be purchased only with BTC (Bitcoin) and ETH (Ethereum), during sales of tokens and only on WEBSITE - http://StopTheFakes.io. The terms, cost, duration and number of the tokens available for sale are defined and registered in White Paper posted on the WEBSITE.

12. Should you not accept all the terms of this Agreement without exception, you shall not be able to purchase tokens.

13. To purchase tokens, User shall send only BTC (Bitcoin) and ETH (Ethereum) from his personal wallet in the amount equivalent to the amount of tokens that User wishes to obtain. It is strictly forbidden to send BTC (Bitcoin) and ETH (Ethereum) to purchase tokens from any exchange office or any stock exchange (Poloniex, Biitfinex and others).

14. To the extent permissible under applicable law, purchase of tokens by User from WEBSITE Owner is final and is not subject to reimbursement and/or cancellation of the transaction.

15. Buyer of tokens obtains possession of tokens from WEBSITE Owner within seven days from the completion of the second stage (Token sale) of the sale of tokens.

16. User is solely responsible and pays any applicable taxes imposed by government agencies of any kind, levied on tokens purchased under this Agreement.

17. By purchasing tokens, User understands and warrants that:

22. User is aware, realizes and agrees that StopTheFakes.io does not guarantee User financial or any other outcome resulting from his use of the StopTheFakes.io service and tokens.

23. User is aware, realizes and agrees that, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, WEBSITE Owner shall not be liable for damages in any manner and manifestation, included but not limited to loss or damage to data, loss of profits or income, resulting from the use / impossibility of use / non-use of WEBSITE or of materials, software or information available in it or of materials, software or information transferred within WEBSITE, even if WEBSITE Owner was notified of the possibility of such loss.

24. User is aware, realizes and agrees that WEBSITE Owner does not bear any responsibility for the cost of the token or for any change in its value. User understands and agrees that WEBSITE Owner shall not in any way guarantee the purchase/sale of tokens during or after Presale or Token sale.

25. Parties are responsible for compliance with the terms of Agreement in order to fulfill User's obligations and guarantees in the manner and amount prescribed by Agreement, in particular:

25.1. Should charges, lawsuits or litigations be filed against StopTheFakes, related to User's failure to comply with Agreement on the sale of tokens and/or with obligations entered by User during his participation in Presale or Token sale, User agrees to settle such claims or actions on his own and at his own expense, and also to fully compensate the losses confirmed by StopTheFakes, incurred legal costs associated with User's refusal or the untimely fulfillment of his obligations by User.

25.2. Should charges, lawsuits or litigations be filed against StopTheFakes, related to User's failure to comply with his exclusive rights or other rights of third parties, User agrees to settle such claims or actions on his own and at his own expense, and also to fully compensate the losses confirmed by StopTheFakes, incurred legal costs associated with User's refusal or the untimely fulfillment of his obligations by User.

26. StopTheFakes has the right unilaterally – this Agreement with User without prior written/oral notice, should User violate any of its conditions. User is aware, realizes and agrees that, should this termination take place, WEBSITE Owner does not bear any responsibility to him, including but not limited to no compensation of losses, expenses or damages.

27. Upon termination of Agreement on the sale of tokens, User continues to be liable to WEBSITE Owner for any amounts due on the date of termination.

28. The laws of Belize govern Agreement and relations between Parties. Any disputes and disagreements arising from this Agreement shall be negotiated through negotiations between Parties. Should Parties have not reached an agreement, disputes are resolved in accordance with the legislation of the primary residence and location of the defendant.

29. Should the Court declare null and void any provision of Agreement, all the remaining provisions shall retain their full force and effect.
